Professional Summary

Customer-focused operations professional with high-volume support, inventory coordination, practical problem-solving, clear communication, and dependable team delivery in service-driven environments.

Profile

This role is a practical local option. While my background is technical operations rather than retail, I bring customer-facing service, accurate process execution, stock and asset awareness, teamwork, and a willingness to learn product and point-of-sale processes.

Skills

Customer service, teamwork, stock and asset handling, process accuracy, issue resolution, communication, shift reliability, safety awareness, and operational support
